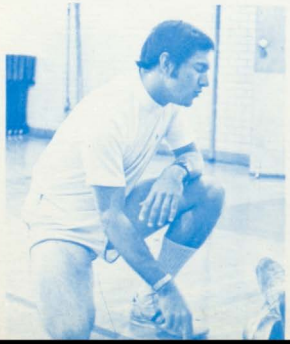
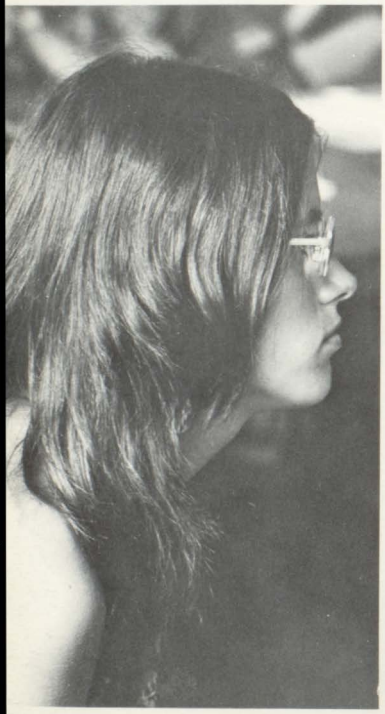
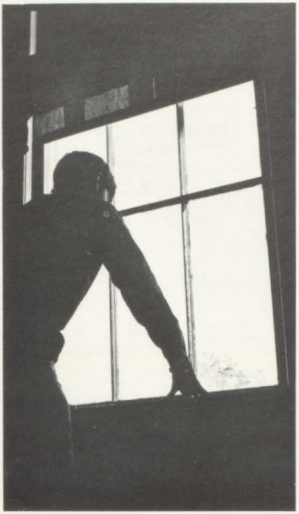
SUFFOLK HIGH SCHOOL
SUFFOLK, VIRGINIA

How can we remember the memories and moods of the years . . . the silent moments of consolation . . . a blurr of rigid excitement . . . leadership that also teaches us the game of life . . . together power . . . a common goal – victory . . . participation and a willingness to give . . . New meaningful friendships . . . the fun of just being with people . . . enthusiasm – typical of S.H.S. . . . complete involvement and interest . . . together Suffolk High is built and together we will remember . . .

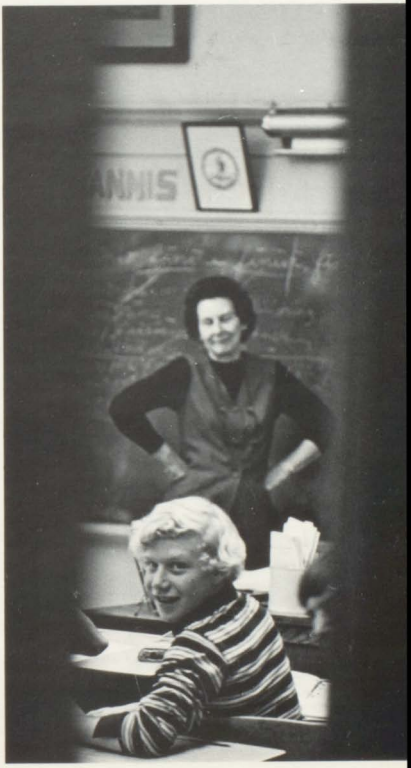






QUIET . . .

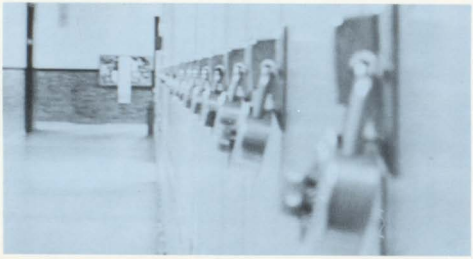
the silent periods of Suffolk High . . . times of meditation and collection of our thoughts . . . contemplating new ideas . . . realizing the existence of knowledge . . .

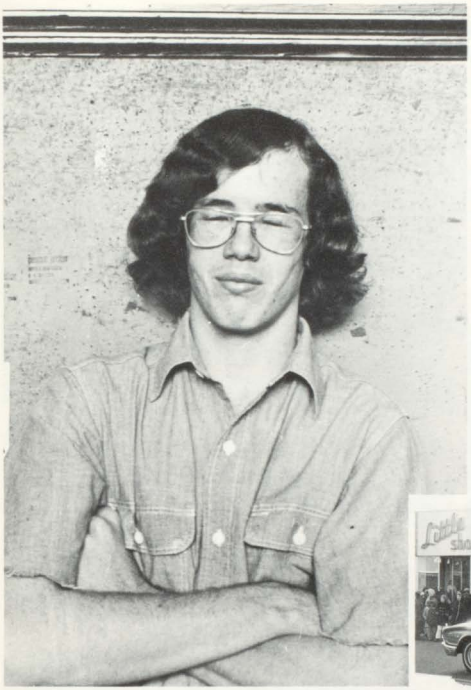


Sophomores will paint signs after school today . . . Chorus will rehearse for the Christmas concert 7th period . . . why does everyone have to stop right in front of the steps during class changing . . . the office wants me . . . man, give me a soda . . . nice things happen when it is not too crowded . . .

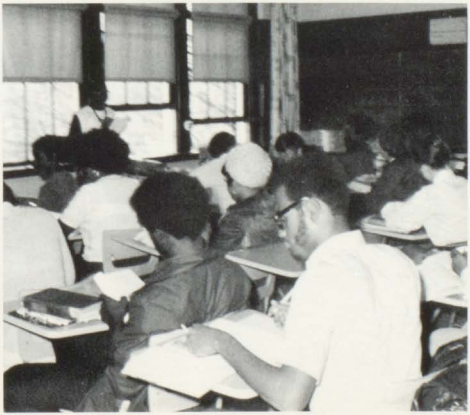
NO.1 SCHOOL SPIRIT

The senior year — one of great anticipation . . . to build up by the experiences of each individual class . . . sleeping on the Washington trip . . . being entrusted with a leadership responsibility . . . halls well known . . . studying hard to get in the over-abundance of work Advanced Composition seems to have . . . just taking time to breathe freely and act as if we aren't seniors . . . but when graduation comes, somehow it all seems so worthwhile and one knows it definitely is . . .

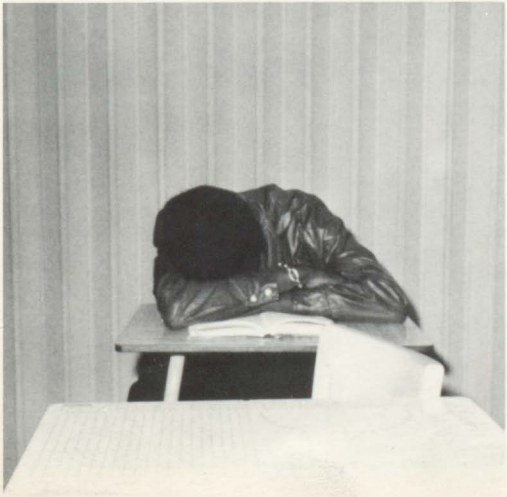




Little
shoppe
DRUG



School work . . . always overshadowing everything else . . . forgetting the big test . . . homework not quite finished . . . sleeping in class (from hard studying?) . . . the awareness of your creativity . . . always getting the wrong results in the lab . . . the forgotten book . . . but somehow the work is finished and the end brings accomplishments.



EXIT

People are what make S.H.S. . . . working together for a great Junior Senior . . . teamwork for victory . . . expression–emotion of friendship . . . waiting for an outcome . . . the thrill of victory for all.

This is just a taste of the many moods of Suffolk High School.

RECOGNITION

In this the fiftieth edition of the PEANUT, the Class of 1972 feels it is our pleasure to salute those who so diligently work behind the scenes to make each school day a success. To you, Mrs. Ginger Toney, Miss Gene Burton, and Mrs. Florri Gardner, we say "Thank You" for your kind words of advice, your willingness to help, and your sincerity of friendship. Each one of you plays a great role in contributing to our success. We feel that our school would not be complete without the tremendous assistance the office staff lends.

DEDICATION

In this our fiftieth PEANUT it is only appropriate to dedicate with honor our yearbook to one who has so willingly given of herself to help enrich our learning experiences.

For the sincere words of confidence,
For a desire in teaching the art of expression,
For strong support as both class and annual sponsor, and
For the years of dedication as a teacher and a friend

We, the annual staff guided by a vote of the Senior Class, with pride dedicate this our golden volume of the PEANUT to you,

Come see the making of power

Vepco's first commercial atomic power station is now under construction in Surry County, Virginia. In the new Information Center overlooking the site, you will see an excellent slide presentation, fascinating exhibits, and a working model of the reactor. (And from the balcony, you can watch them assemble the real thing.) Open 10 AM to 4 PM Monday through Saturday and 1 PM to 5 PM on Sunday. For tour information call 771-8194 in Richmond.
